San Ignacio is situated on the right side of the beautiful Macal River and its sister-town, Santa Elena which is located on the left. The two towns are connected by Belize's only suspension bridge and make up Belize's second largest urban area. Although San Ignacio has a larger population, the two are collectively referred to as the "Twin Towns".

Things to do:

- ❖ Ancient Maya ruins of Caracol excursion
- ❖ Ancient Maya ruins of Xunantunich excursion
- ❖ Macal River canoeing
- ❖ Actun Tunichil Muknal (ATM) cave excursion
- ❖ Horseback riding
